ANALYST: THE TAIWANESE GOVERNMENT HAS A CHANCE TO REFORM THE GAMING INDUSTRY AND BRING IT INTO THE 21ST CENTURY. THE CURRENT SYSTEM IS OUTDATED AND DOES NOT PROTECT THE INTERESTS OF THE PUBLIC. THE GOVERNMENT SHOULD CONSIDER INTRODUCING A NEW SYSTEM THAT WOULD ALLOW FOR MORE CONTROL AND TRANSPARENCY. THIS WOULD HELP TO REDUCE THE RISK OF ADDICTION AND FINANCIAL LOSS FOR GAMBLERS. NEW YORK (AP) — The Belle Group, a private equity firm, has sold a 45% stake in the Jockey Club, a leading American horse racing organization, to a consortium of investors. The sale, which was completed last week, marks a significant move in the group's strategy to diversify its portfolio and focus on other investment opportunities. The Jockey Club, which has a long history in the industry, will continue to operate independently, but the new ownership structure is expected to bring about changes in its management and operations.

Experts unite to press for kids' vaccination vs rabies

By Charles E. Sabin

For the first time, a coalition of scientists and public health officials has joined forces to urge parents to get their children vaccinated against rabies. The coalition, which includes the American Academy of Pediatrics, the American Veterinary Medical Association, and the World Health Organization, says that rabies is a deadly disease that can be prevented by a simple vaccine. The coalition also says that rabies is a disease that is often misunderstood by the public, and that it is important to educate parents about the risks of the disease.
